

BERNINA CUSTOMER PORTAL

WELCOME

Thank you for your interest in BERNINA Newsletters. To give you the full experience and control over what messages you receive requires you to have an active Customer Portal account, see 1.

DO I HAVE A CUSTOMER PORTAL ACCOUNT?

Many of our loyal customers have received emails from BERNINA for several year. However, this may not mean you have a Customer Portal account.

If you have already gone through the full set-up of the Customer Portal on bernina.com, you have an account. You can register your products, update your email preferences, and have easy access to your product-related support. If you are looking for help using the Customer Portal, see pages 3 and 4.

You may have registered for emails in the past, or on bernina.com using

- 2 Header link
- 3 Homepage banner
- 4 Footer link

In this case, you do not have a Customer Portal account.

STILL NOT SURE?
